

MACALLISTER STATHAM

MULTIMEDIA ARTIST / DESIGNER

---

PROFILE

---

I am an Australian Media Artist in LA, who is specifically interested in the field of brand experience design and industrial design. While I have particularly worked with mediums of graphic design and illustration, I plan to explore a multitude of mediums in the future to gain experience in my fields of interest. I am an organized, motivated, and attentive team player who is now seeking a position in professional media creation, where I can apply my knowledge and skills and strive for continuous improvement.
